Artist Submission Form.

White Creek Images is a specialized art publishing company whose focus is on Country Life and Sporting Art. Products we offer comprise but are not limited to, open and limited editions, canvas transfers, giclée prints, plaques and wall and home décor. We encourage submissions from artists and photographers of fine art whose subject and style compliment our line. All mediums are accepted and all submissions meticulously reviewed by our art department. The selection process is based strongly on subject matter, quality and appeal.

Please submit a minimum of five different images you have recently created. It's important that you select your best work in the same style. If you have a series of images suitable for a collection please submit the entire series. Sample material such as 35mm slides, good quality photos, brochures, flyers and catalogs can be sent to our address. Slides need to be in plastic sleeves. Both slides and photos have to be clearly marked with your name, title of artwork, medium, and dimensions. If you wish the material returned, please include a SASE. We also accept electronic jpegs submissions sent to info@whitecreekimages.com can also follow the links for art submission on our website www.whitecreekimages.com and fill the information form.

Our art department will review all samples and send you a response within a few weeks of arrival. You may also be asked to send additional samples. Never send original artwork until specifically requested.

An artist, whose work has been accepted, is required to sign an exclusive contract with White Creek Images, LLC before images can be reproduced. All accepted images must be professionally photographed and 4"x 6" transparencies produced. Licensing of images to outside sources are managed by our agent Looking Good Licensing.

If you want to enter the creative world of publishing and licensing let White Creek Images help you take that first step. We'd love to get to know you better.
